Building Program At Grade School Is Well Underway

Excavation Finished Mon.; Work on Basement Walls Started

The addition to the Antioch Grade school is progressing very well, according to Richard Whitacre principal at the school. Excavation work, which was started last week, was concluded early Monday morning, and work on the footing was started.

At present the footings are already poured, and work on forming the concrete basement walls is started.

Whitacre said that the excellent weather had had much to do with the speed at which the building is going on, and expressed the hope that the weather would remain good, so that work could continue at a fast pace.

Members of the board have expressed the hope that the building can be ready for use on September 1, as it will be needed at that time. Whitacre said that since the shortage of material and labor which were the main reason for slow progress on building of this type during the war were no longer prevalent, that he thought that the building would be ready for the next school year.

Vets Fail to Record Discharge Papers at Office of Recorder

Half the war veterans of Illinois have never had their discharge papers recorded by their county recorder, the Illinois Veterans Commission said today.

A spot-check throughout the state in offices of recorders revealed that an estimated 750,000 veterans of all wars have neglected to place their service records in the permanent and official files of their county.

In times of emergency a veteran or his dependents might face serious and oftentimes costly delays by not being able to secure a certified copy of a war record.

Certified or photostatic copies of separation papers are required in applying for all of the thousands of benefits provided by the state and federal government.

Original discharge papers should be placed in a safe place, preferably a fire-proof lockbox or bank safety deposit vault.

Service officers of the IVC will furnish assistance or information in connection with the recording of papers. State law provides that county recorders make a record of discharge papers without charge.

WKRS To Be On Air Until 8:00 P. M.

Beginning with the programs of Monday, May 1, WKRS Waukegan, will continue broadcasting on the AM dial until 8 p. m. This is in accordance with the terms of the Federal Communications Commission issued license which permits WKRS to operate during the daylight hours only. As the days grow longer the operating hours of the so-called "daylight" stations increase.

WKRS-FM, at 106.7 megacycles on the FM band will continue its year 'round practice of staying on the air from 7 a. m. to 10 p. m. on weekdays and from 8 a. m. to 10 p. m. on Sundays. Throughout the entire day, until 8 in the evening, WKRS and WKRS-FM will operate simultaneously, with only the final two hours from 8 p. m. limited to FM.

The increased time allotted to the standard broadcast station, WKRS, means that local people can hear programs until 8 o'clock every night, beginning the first of May simply by tuning to 1220 on the ordinary radio set. Car radios can receive these local programs too, with the broadcasts beginning at 7 a. m. on weekdays and at 8 a. m. on Sundays. During the extra hour and a half of AM broadcasting, there will be sports, popular music, and local programs, including programs by students from Lake County High Schools.

Carey Resigns Chairmanship
Irving Carey has been unable to continue in the chairmanship of the Salvation Army Service unit and Robert Wilton has been appointed in his place according to Lt. Col. Dallas P. Leader, divisional commander.

Fourth Graders Enjoy Chicago Trip Wednesday

Members of the fourth grade at Antioch Grade school enjoyed a sightseeing trip to Chicago, where they visited places of interest yesterday.

The bus which picks up pupils at the school was used for the trip, the regular schedule being set up 30 minutes to allow an early start.

The children first visited the Aquarium where they spent a profitable three-quarter hour examining the exhibits there. From the Aquarium, they visited the Adler Planetarium for a lecture at 11 a. m. Last place of interest visited was the WLS studios, where they were taken on a tour of the studios and were guests at the program "WLS School of the Air."

Mrs. Fred Yates, fourth grade teacher, was in charge of the group. She was assisted by Victor Lubke, senior Patrol boy, and by Roy Bolton, bus driver, who also accompanied the children on the sightseeing tours of the various places.

High School Students Take Part in Music Festival at Barrington

Fifty-two Antioch Township High school students will participate in the annual music festival at Barrington next Monday evening.

Some of the students will become members of the all-conference chorus and other of the all-conference band, or both.

They will go by bus to Barrington Sunday afternoon for practice and again on Monday afternoon for the final rehearsal before the night program.

It is the first time that the festival has been held at Barrington. Waukegan having entertained it previously. The new location was chosen because of its larger auditorium. Approximately 400 students will participate.

Yesterday was grade day at Antioch High. Grades for the second period of the second semester were given out.

Mrs. Donald Stowe New President of P. T. A.; Mrs. Freedlund Speaks

Mrs. Donald Stowe will head the Antioch Grade school Parent-Teacher association next year as president as the result of the election Monday evening.

Other officers chosen are Mrs. Lloyd Murrie, vice president; Mrs. Wendell Nelson, treasurer; Mrs. Raymond Gilden, secretary and Mrs. Bernice Thompson, historian.

Mrs. G. R. Freedlund of the Chicago Dental society spoke on dental health and showed films on the subject Monday evening.

Community singing was led by Hans Von Holwede.

The first grade won the room count by having 14 parents present. Mrs. George Wagner, first grade room mother and her committee served the refreshments.

Senior Class Perfecting Acting for Presentation Of "Little Women" May 4

Members of the senior class of the Antioch Township High school are in the fifth week of practice for their play, "Little Women," which will be given May 4 and 5.

The play, directed by Miss Naomi Meiners, is from Louisa M. Alcott's immortal novel written for the stage by Arthur Jeanne.

All acts have been gone over by the production staff and the work from now on will be perfection of the acting. Adela Rentner is the student director, Peter Poulos and Jack Mahoney are stage managers, Shirley Ross is the art coordinator, Betty Jean McDougall in charge of costumes, and Louise Erickson, properties.

Milk Production High
Brattleboro, Vt.—Piebe Ormsby Constance Second A, a registered Holstein-Friesian cow owned by E. H. Ravenscroft, Antioch, has completed a 365-day production test of 823 pounds of butterfat and 24,012 pounds of milk made in Advanced Registry.

Testing was supervised by the University of Illinois, in cooperation with The Holstein-Friesian Association of America.

"Constance" was milked 3 times daily and was 6 years 1 month of age when she began her test period.

Antioch Over Top In Cancer Fund Drive With $371

Village First to Reach Goal And Has Chance to Set State Record

Antioch has gone over the top and is on its way to doubling its quota, Mrs. Winsor Warriner, chairman of the cancer fund drive said yesterday.

County headquarters at Waukegan announced today that this community was the first to reach its quota of $250. Mrs. Warriner said the gifts now total $371.50.

"I am gratified at the response," said Mrs. Warriner who is hoping that contributions will continue to come in to the extent that the total will double the quota. She believes that the village will set a record for the state in percentage of receipts.

Fearing that the cancer drive would fail because it was the last of the many collections in this community, Mrs. Warriner contributed to its success by writing personal notes to those who gave last year and to other acquaintances.

On thing that is aiding the drive is the announcement that on the basis of research aided by the fund discovery has been made of a method by which 98 per cent of the cases can now be detected through the blood at the very start and the disease arrested.

Large Crowd Attends Grade School Festival

All seats were taken and people stood to watch and hear the annual music festival of the Antioch Grade school at the high school auditorium last Friday evening.

Each room performed in song, dance, or in instrumental numbers, with the seventh and eighth grades providing the latter.

Increasing popularity of the program each year will mean that even with a new auditorium of its own next year the grade school may not have enough space for the audience.

The teachers were credited with a good job in training the youngsters this year, and while the responsibility of the project may not have provided enjoyment for them, it certainly did for the children and the spectators, mostly parents, and that should give the staff of the school general satisfaction.

Make Plans for 4-H Summer Camp for Lake County Girls and Boys

Plans for taking care of about 75 boys and girls from Lake County at the Northeast District 4-H Camp next summer were discussed at the recent state camping workshop at Springfield.

The Northeast district camp at Camp Shaw-Waw-Nas-See, near Kankakee, is scheduled to start on June 19 and end July 22, according to Home Adviser Mrs. Helen Volk, Lake county 4-Hers will attend July 12-15.

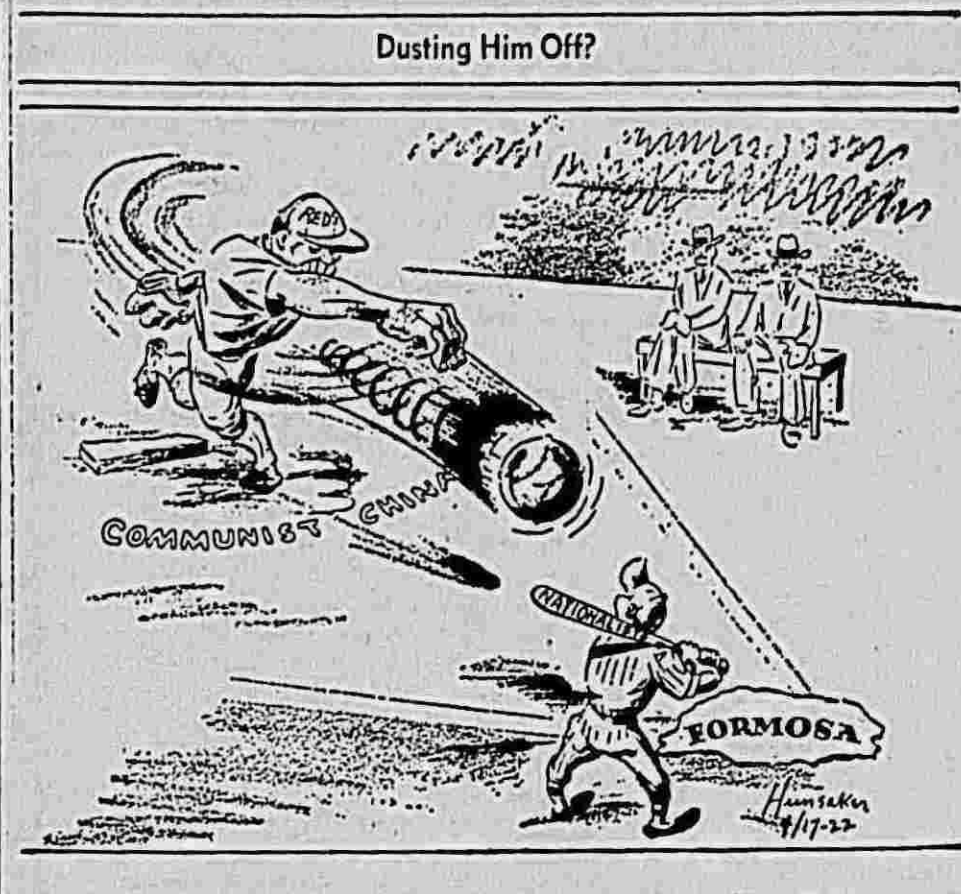

Present at the workshop were more than 150 farm and home advisers and assistants from 77 counties, plus state extension staff members and several members of the camp staffs for next summer. Attending from Lake County were: Mrs. Helen Volk, Home Adviser and Miss June Kutil, Youth assistant.

Most of the sessions at the two-day meeting were taken up with discussing plans and objectives for the state camping program. Mrs. Helen Volk took part in a panel discussion on camping programs. She also was on a radio broadcast representing the Northeast district camp.

The five district camps in the Illinois 4-H camping program are the southern Illinois district camp at Lake West Frankfort, the western Illinois district camp at Lake Jacksonville, the Rock River district camp at Lowden Memorial Park near Oregon, Camp Shaw-Waw-Nas-See near Kankakee, and State 4-H Memorial Camp at Allerton Park near Monticello.

All five camping areas are now in the midst of a ten-year, million-dollar camp fund-raising drive to provide money to build facilities at these five camps. So far more than a quarter-million dollars have been raised through donations.

Lake County's quota toward the state camp fund is $7,000.00 of which $3,519.71 has been raised so far.

New Location for Local Postoffice Sought to Provide Adequate Space

The U. S. postal department is advertising for a new location for the Antioch postoffice.

A notice posted in the lobby of the present office seeks proposals for quarters that will provide at least 1,300 square feet of floor space and is in a central location.

Requirements are that the building have good daylight and accessibility to rear or side entrance. Light, heat and toilet facilities are also required.

A lease for 5 or 10 years will be taken, Roy Kufalk, postmaster, said. He mentioned the lease because of the possibility that someone might want to build specifically for the office.

At present, about the only store building that will be vacant is the one now occupied by the township library.

The room now used by the post-office is merely too small.

55 Initiated Sunday By Moose Lodge to Be Honored on Saturday

Fifty-five candidates were initiated Sunday by the Moose lodge in services held at the Masonic home.

Because of fair weather which kept lake resorts open many of the candidates could not be present and a second initiation will be held May 23.

The Racine degree and drill teams had charge of the services Sunday and were credited with excellent work. Many visitors were present from Racine, Waukegan and Woodstock.

A dance honoring the new initiates will be conducted Saturday evening at the Moose club rooms in the Elms building.

Lester Hybarger, the new governor, said that a change may be made in the date of the installation of the new officers elected last week.

Mail Service In Antioch Office To Remain As Always

Good news for patrons of the Antioch postoffice was forthcoming this week when Roy I. Kufalk, postmaster, announced that the nationwide cuts in mail service and shorter hours at most postoffices would not affect service here. Kufalk said that the office was already operating in a manner which conforms with the new orders, and that service would remain as now in effect.

The Wednesday afternoon closing of the local office, inaugurated some weeks ago, shortened the office hours sufficiently, Kufalk said, to make further cuts in service unnecessary, and since there is no delivery service, other than the rural carrier service, no change could be made there.

Kufalk said also that the storm of abuse which has been directed at the postmaster general, should have been directed to the Committee on Appropriations of the House of Representatives instead, since the committee handed down the orders to the postoffice department, seeking to cut the annual deficit in the post-office department. The course followed by the postmaster general was the only logical one, since the committee had made the recommendations.

Welch Wins County Board Chairmanship By One Vote Margin

Noel White, Grant Twp. Supervisor, Loses Fight

Noel E. White, Grant Supervisor, and well-known here for Legion activity, was defeated in the closest race in years for the chairmanship of the Lake County Board of Supervisors, when he received 17 votes, while his opponent, Joseph E. Welch, garnered 18.

White was backed by the Stabin forces and also had the support of both Wm. A. Rosing and Art Bennett, Antioch and Lake Villa supervisors. Welch was chosen by the Moroney-Hentges faction. Welch succeeded the late Harold Kelsey as supervisor of Cuba township, and has long been a power on the board.

Final votes were tabulated on Tuesday afternoon, and for a time the race looked like a dead heat, but the Welch forces managed to obtain the eighteenth vote which elected their man.

The results of this election will probably mean that opponents of the winner will be given posts on committee work which will be less important than those given his supporters, although the closeness of the election would indicate that the minority can muster enough strength to fight measures which they are against.

Welch promised better county government and urged that all members work to that end, in a talk after he was elected.

Farm Bureau Spring Dance Next Wednesday Night at Libertyville High School

The spring dance, sponsored by the Lake County Farm Bureau, will be held at the Libertyville Township High school Wednesday evening, April 26. The program will start at 8 p. m. and will consist of old-time and modern dancing. Refreshments will be served.

All Farm Bureau members and their families are invited to attend. There will be no charge for dancing and refreshments.

Lake County Wins Trophy For 1949 T-B Seal Sale

Mrs. Gerard Fossland, seal sale chairman for the Lake County Tuberculosis association's 1949 Christmas Seal sale, announced today that the Lake County association won the trophy for the highest gross seal sale in the State of Illinois, exclusive of Cook County. The final figure was $43,055.42.

Lake County has won this award several times before, but ended up in third place last year behind DuPage and Kane counties. This year Kane was second with $42,925 and DuPage was third with $42,800. DeKalb county won the highest seal sale per capita award this year.

For the State of Illinois, exclusive of Cook County, the Illinois Tuberculosis Association reports the total was $701,146.94. This is slightly under last year's total, Mrs. Fossland said.

Squad Called to Wilmot
The Antioch Rescue Squad went to Wilmot Sunday afternoon to give first aid to a youth who was clipped by a car at the Wilmot bridge, but found that he already was under a doctor's care.

Referendum at H. S. Is Set for Tues., May 23rd

Board Acts on Plans, Amount of Money Not Yet Decided

Tuesday, May 23, will be the day when voters of the Antioch Township high school district will be asked to go to the polls and authorize the school board to issue bonds, in an amount as yet not determined, with which to build additional facilities at the school.

The board met Wednesday evening and made a decision as to the general plan to be followed. A good many different plans were under consideration, but the one finally decided upon by the board was one of the cheaper plans.

The project addition to the building will house about six classrooms, a new shop for manual training, an auditorium seating 700, and an enlarged gymnasium, and a library. The old gym, which doubles for an auditorium will be closed up on the north and south walls and be used as a girls' gym, and the rooms to the south, now used as classrooms will provide space for adequate locker rooms for the girls.

The present gymnasium will be enlarged to the north to provide more space, and locker rooms and showers will be placed at the south end of the gym.

The plan also calls for a new addition to the east of the present gym for the new shop rooms. Some enlargement of the present agricultural department rooms is also contemplated.

Some work on present facilities to convert them to other uses is also part of the plan, mainly enlargement of the cafeteria, which is inadequate at present, into the space now occupied by the library, and use of the present study hall, which seats less than half the student body, in a music room with individual practice rooms.

Since the plan was adopted last night no figures as to the cost are as yet available. T. R. Birkhead said today that an accurate estimate of the cost will be available Monday.

Necessity for the improvement is clear when figures on expected enrollment in years to come is studied. Children now in grade schools of the district will swell the total enrollment to 494 students in 1957, and to 760 in 1963. These figures do not take into consideration the growth of the population figures through people moving into the district, since no figures on the expected growth of the region are available. Enrollment will, no doubt, be much larger than these figures through the normal growth of the district.

These figures together with the fact that the school building is inadequate with the present enrollment of less than 300, has been the moving factor in the decision of the board to enlarge the school building.

Atkinson, Not Hoff, Was Antioch Favorite

Because the Antioch News had to depend on the tabulation of the Waukegan News-Sun for its election returns, the error made by that paper in the sheriff's race was repeated by us.

The 3 to 1 majority was in favor of Walter Atkinson and not Cal Hoff as noted last week. The figures for the two men should have been reversed.

Instructions from the county clerk called for the report of results to that office and to the Waukegan newspaper. Those at the clerk's office are not available until the official count, therefore, we had no other source for our information.

Naturally, the figures, as they appeared were news and under the circumstances they were reported as such. The correct report shows that Antioch township is not out of step and that Atkinson is still the favorite.

Democratic Chairman Quits

Anton Macrowski, Jr., chairman of the Democratic Central committee of Lake county will not accept the post again and will devote his entire attention to his job as mayor of North Chicago. He has recommended his brother-in-law, Walter Koziol as his successor. Opposing Koziol who is termed the organization candidate will be Elmer Odum of Libertyville, and possibly Harold Bergan of Winthrop Harbor. The election will take place next Monday evening.

Small "Fee"

The National Retail Dry Goods Association has summarized operating data covering 231 department and specialty stores with aggregate sales of about $2,500,000,000, for the fiscal year which ended last January 31.

One interesting phase of the report is that profits from merchandising operations declined in practically all cases, as compared with the preceding year, and were very moderate. In the case of specialty stores with annual sales of $1,000,000 or more, profits amounted to only 2.7 per cent of net sales. The profits of department stores in the same classification were about the same—2.9 per cent of sales. Smaller stores showed a similar experience.

If any consumers are still grumbling at retailers on the grounds that their prices include high profits, these figures should come as a revelation. Of each dollar spent in a typical retail store, only a few cents remain on hand as profit after the bills are paid. All the rest goes to buy merchandise, to pay for rents and leases and utilities, to hire workers, and for the other functions which are necessary to the store's operation.

The NRPGA's summary observes, "A number of years ago some degree of deflation was recognized as both necessary and healthy to the economy a whole. The present period of general price decline provides stores with a valuable opportunity to effect improvements in their merchandising and operating activities." Retailing's services to the public always get better—and the consumer pays a remarkably small "fee" in the way of profit to the enterprises which bring us so much abundance.

Coin and Abel

Private enterprise and freedom might be likened to Abel, and socialism and the welfare state to Cain.

Private industry has the ability to produce in abundance but this is not enough. To overwhelm the utopian promises of the socialist welfare state it must emphasize its irreplaceable value to the community and the individual from the standpoint of opportunity and freedom.

In seeking greater security, people find the proposals of socialism and the welfare state attractive. It takes a strong heart to turn down government handouts, until it is understood that that kind of help is a snare and a delusion and a destroyer of real benefits that grow from individual initiative and thrift.

Socialism kills individual freedom whenever given a chance, just as Cain killed Abel.

The Low Down From Hickory Grove

For wrapping up an understandable statement on a technical kind of subject, I doff my fedora to this Mr. McAfee person of old Saint Louis. He runs the power station there, the paper says. He tells how his Company in the past 3 years since the war, has eliminated any chance of an electricity shortage in his neck of the woods. Also, he says, by 1960 when his Company has finished the spending of around 400 million of its own coin-of-the-realm for new poles and wires, etc., everybody will be invited to come, and no limit—kilowatts to spare.

Congress should be wised-up—congress has listened too long and too intent to the crew that has been cooking up a socialist power-sain mulligan there on the banks of the wide Potomac.

And furthermore says this Saint Louis gent—and it behooves congress to pay heed—if his Company could be relieved of tax payments as are most Govt. power projects, his Company could furnish free for 8 months of the year, all his residence customers. That is tellin' 'em. Free, he says, for 8 months.

Quite illuminating, says Henry. Thank you, I says. And if congress will now finally catch on, our free and easy old U. S. A. may yet save its bacon from socialism, like France and all over Europe etc., is cluttered up with, and which is slowing 'em down.

Yours with the low down,
 JO SERRA

Margaret Hughes and Keith Landman United in Marriage

On Saturday afternoon, April 15, at 3 p. m. at Millburn Congregational church, Miss Margaret Hughes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Hughes, of Antioch, was united in marriage to Mr. Keith Landman, of Pontiac, Mich. The single ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. L. H. Messersmith before an altar decorated with baskets of snapdragons.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an afternoon dress of gray silk. She chose a hat of pink straw and carried a bouquet of butterfly orchids and carnations. Her sister, Miss Julia Hughes, of Chicago, served as maid of honor and wore an afternoon dress of light blue silk with a beige straw hat. She carried a bouquet of bachelor buttons and daisies.

Mr. Landman, son of Mrs. Isagar, of Pontiac, Mich., chose Warren Erickson, of Antioch, as his best man. Robert Hughes, a brother of the bride was the usher.

The music preceding the ceremony and traditional wedding march was played by Mrs. Russell Doolittle of Antioch.

Mrs. Hughes chose a dress of steel blue gray silk with blue accessories for her daughter's wedding and Mrs. Isagar wore a dress of navy blue with dark accessories. Both mothers wore a corsage of camellias.

A reception was held in the church dining room following the ceremony for sixty guests. Mrs. Milton Bauman and Mrs. Howard Bonner poured and Mrs. John Haisma served the wedding cake.

Following their honeymoon moon Mr. and Mrs. Landman will be at home at 536 Orchard Lake Ave., Pontiac, Mich., where Mr. Landman is employed with a Publishing Company.

Mrs. Landman is a graduate of Antioch High school and the University of Illinois and has been employed in Chicago as a Medical Technician.

Lake Villa Nuptial Rites Announced

The marriage of Miss Helen Schroeder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Schroeder, of Lake Villa, to Virgil C. Burnette, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Sheridan Burnette, of Antioch, was solemnized at the Lake Villa M. E. Church Saturday, April 15th at 3 o'clock.

The attendants were the bride's sister, Mrs. Mildred Hombs and the groom's brother, Richard Burnette. A reception was held at The Spa, State Line Rd., Pikeville, for over 200 guests.

After a short honeymoon they will return to Lake Villa on Grand Ave., to reside.

DISTRICT LEADER OF METHODIST CHURCH TO SPEAK SUNDAY

Dr. Weldon Bradburn, District Superintendent of the Methodist church will bring the message at the Methodist church in Antioch next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. The Rev. G. Richard Tuttle will conduct the worship service. The robed choir under the direction of Charles B. Watson will sing "My God and I." Mr. Warren Heyne will be soloist. He will sing, "My God and Father While I Strayed." A nursery for small children will be maintained during the service.

The visit of Dr. Bradburn is the occasion for the fourth quarterly conference which is the annual business meeting of the church. A pot luck dinner will follow the morning worship service and all members and friends of the church are cordially invited to attend. Following the dinner the conference will be held. Brief reports will be given by the various department heads followed by the election of officers. Members of the Nomination Committee have been meeting in recent weeks to nominate officers for the coming year. Members of that committee include the minister, Mrs. Elmer Hunter, Miss Alice Smith, Frank Spangard and Robert Wilton.

SOCIAL ORGANIZATION OF A. T. H. S. TO HOLD FINAL MEETING

The Antioch High school Social Organization will hold its final meeting of the school term Friday, April 21, at 8 o'clock at the school gymnasium. A short business meeting will be held to hear the report of the nominating committee.

Parents, students, faculty members and friends are cordially invited to attend. Hans Von Holwege will be in charge of the music with Mr. A. Wickert and Miss Carol Bean, faculty members will be in charge of the evening's recreation program. Refreshments will be served by the Grass Lake, Channel Lake and Lake Catherine parent group headed by Mrs. George Masopust as chairman.

The Intermediate M. Y. F. will meet next Sunday, April 23. Following Craftshop new officers will be installed.

SUNDAY RED LETTER DAY AT LAKE VILLA CHURCH

Sunday, April 23, promises to be a red letter day for Lake Villa, Methodists, for this day is both Roll Call Sunday and Membership Sunday. An effort is being made to have every resident member in attendance Sunday, for the roll of the church will be called, and small, attractive billfold size membership cards will be distributed to all in attendance. Every possible method is being used to see how high a percentage of the membership can be brought into the church on a single Sunday. The day will also see the reception of a class of at least 14 adult members into full membership. A cordial invitation is extended as always to the host of non-member friends who habitually have been filling the pews of our church on Sunday morning.

Dr. Weldon E. Bradburn will be present at 4 p. m. Sunday for the annual church meeting. At this time reports will be heard from the various boards, leaders, and committees of the church. New officers will be elected, and the pastor's salary will be set for the new conference year.

Every member and friend of the church is urged to attend this meeting and the potluck supper which follows. This supper will consist of light foods easily prepared on Sunday afternoon. As this is the new pastor's first quarterly conference at Lake Villa, he is most anxious that everyone be present.

The pastor and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison attended the annual Lake Bluff meeting of the Chicago Minister's Monday. The group heard reports from the trustees and staff of Lake Bluff Orphanage and was treated to a turkey dinner in the new dining hall. The old dining hall, long condemned will be torn down this week.

The official board meets Wednesday, April 26, in the parsonage. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Weber and Miss Verna Bennecke as hosts.

4-H Recreation Training School at Grayslake; Club Rallies Planned

A 4-H Recreation training school will be held at the Grayslake grade school from 7:30 p. m. to 9:30 p. m. Thursday, Apr. 20, according to Farm and Home Advisers, Ray T. Nicholas and Helen Volk.

Each 4-H Club leader will be invited to bring one or two members who will be responsible for the recreation of the club this year. Miss Martha Carlisle, University of Illinois, will train the leaders and members on 4-H Club recreation activities.

Two 4-H Club Rallies Planned

Two 4-H Club rally programs are planned for Lake County. All 4-H Club members and parents are invited to attend either or both of these events. The first program will be held at the Warren Township High school Friday night, April 28. The second one will be held at the Mundelein Grade school Friday night May 5.

The program will start at 8 p. m. and will include talks on 4-H Club projects and activities, colored slides of Camp Shaw-waw-nas-see, moving pictures, folk dancing and refreshments. All who attend are promised an evening of good fun.

Board Guests of Lions

The Antioch Township High school board will be represented Monday evening at the meeting of the Lions club in discussing plans for the addition to the high school. The meeting will be at the Guild hall.

CARD OF THANKS

My most sincere thanks to all for the many cards and other gifts received during my illness.
Mrs. Fred Peterson

Dog and a Half

Although the dachshund is considered the national dog of Germany, its origin was in France. Due to the peculiar shape of the hound, it is sometimes referred to as "half a dog high and a dog and a half long."

Dry Cellar

Placing around the cellar trays containing calcium chloride is often suggested as a means of keeping the cellar dry, as this material absorbs moisture from the air. However, the method is not too practical because the amount of water to be absorbed is so large. Generally it is better to paint the cellar walls with a cement-base water-proofing paint. A number of such paints are available commercially.

Ignatius, The Ghost, Iried By Publicity

LONDON.—Ignatius, the friendly ghost, is annoyed at all the publicity he's been getting. Mrs. Irene Bradshaw, 39-year-old wife of the vicar of Elm, reports.

Ignatius warns of impending deaths in the parish by tolling his phantom bell, Mrs. Bradshaw contends.

Twenty-seven times the death knell has sounded—27 times a villager has died. But Mrs. Bradshaw is the only one who can hear the bell.

Since Mrs. Bradshaw told reporters of her little chum, hundreds of curious men and women have invaded the quiet vicarage in Cambridgeshire.

"I don't want any boy friends, and Ignatius needs no girl friends," Mrs. Bradshaw wrote London newspapers. I am a very busy woman, with a beautiful house and no maid, who has not time to answer the door to visitors who ask, 'Have you an evil eye?'

"Strange men send their telephone numbers; stranger men ask me if they can spend the night here," she added furiously.

"Psychic-research people wish to hear me. People send letters to Ignatius asking if he will cure them of falling hair or other trouble. Many people have invaded the churchyard and vicarage gardens. Hooligans have broken down a tomb, and Ignatius is annoyed. Instead of keeping to his corridor, he came to my bedside and, after throwing down some photographs, told me how foolish I was to let him get into the news."

Mrs. Bradshaw said she first met Ignatius about two years ago when she bumped into him in a dark corridor in the church. They struck up an acquaintance which has lasted ever since.

Ignatius, she said, used to be a monk in the church several centuries back. He was assigned the bell-ringing job, but once forgot to ring it to warn of approaching floodwaters. He keeps trying to make up for his mistake by warning of approaching deaths now.

Tonyan - V. Shunneson 1176 pins.
Fourth R. Horan - H. Luedtke 1173 pins.

Fifth Wm. Keulman - B. Keulman 1153 pins.
Trophies for the evening's high individuals were awarded by Mr. Gibson as follows.

Ladies high series V. Shunneson 190.
520. Ladies high game B. Keulman.

Men's high series R. Horan 610.

Dentists Over Nation To Return to School Via 'Phone Classes

CHICAGO.—Some 7,000 dentists across the nation are going back to school—by telephone.

Members of 142 state and city dental societies will participate in what is believed to be the most ambitious professional extension course ever undertaken.

The University of Illinois will bring the classroom right to the dentist—from Maine to California—by courtesy of Alexander Graham Bell.

The first class was to be a panel of six noted authorities discussing "recent advances in the control of dental decay."

Appearing on the panel will be leading proponents of various approaches to the problem, such as the dietary and chemical and the use of flourine, ammonia.

A university spokesman pointed out that such a program represented a valuable opportunity for the practicing dentist to keep abreast of the latest developments in his field without leaving his practice and returning to school.

The program will be fed to 39 states and the District of Columbia by the American Telephone & Telegraph company, and dentists will meet in hotels or dental society offices to hear the discussion.

Illustrations used by the lecturer have been published in a special brochure sent to every dentist who has enrolled in the course.

Wisconsin Man Is Owner Of 13,000 'Wishbones'

BUTTE DES MORTS, WIS.—If there's anything to an ancient custom, a local man is potentially one of the luckiest men on earth.

He is Paul Gray, who collects wishbones. At latest count he had about 13,000 of them.

The custom of snapping wishbones, historians report, is an ancient one. As early as 322 B. C. the Etruscans had a "hen oracle." A special god was called upon to grant favors and the collarbone of a fowl was placed on an altar in the sun as an offering to the god. From this the practice of snapping wishbones is believed to have originated.

Gray is a painter and paper-hanger by trade. He started his wishbone collection some 18 years ago when he lived at Oshkosh. "For no good reason at all," he says, he started throwing wishbones of dinner fowl in a box. Friends and relatives sent him more and, before long, his collection was really under-way.

INSURANCE PROGRAM*

There is no doubt about it, a good pie is like a good insurance program. Many a man thinks that he has to have a lot of dough to start one. He thinks that the agent and the insurance companies have a lot of crust to charge what they do. Nevertheless, the truth of the matter is that you do not have to have a lot of dough; the main thing is to have an expert see that the dough is mixed properly and that you are covered top, bottom and sides — just like a good pie.

Treasure Maps Laid to Acts Of Pranksters

PHILADELPHIA.—The yen to prospect for buried pirate treasure is definitely on the up-trend, according to evidence available hereabouts. Men with mine detectors roam New Jersey and the shores of Delaware bay bear signs of the correctness of the conclusion.

So far, as anyone knows, no one has come up with any buried coins or ingots or jewels, but digging is going on apace. The only portent of anything buried has been an old iron pot or some other unmarketable find. However, that hasn't dimmed the lure of pirate gold and the searchers continue on undiscouraged.

Dr. Henry C. Beck, an expert on pirate lore, is of the opinion that the men who are lugging the mechanical detectors around have about as much chance of locating treasure as the plain pick-and-shovelers of 250 years ago. In fact, Dr. Beck is rather cynical on the subject, for he adds that the chance he mentioned is practically no chance at all. There is, he said, no record that anyone anywhere has ever recovered any pirate gold.

Cites Boy's Example

He advises the hunters to follow the example of Joseph Dowling Jr., 11, and wander the Jersey coast with the idea Joseph had—"just looking for things."

Joseph is the Philadelphia boy who brought home what amounted to a peanut bag full of 18th century coins (gold content uncertain) and a pile of buckles and cuffs.

"But as for the buried treasures of Captain Kidd, Lafitte, Teach or any other buccaneers whom fact or romance brought to these shores," Dr. Beck advises, one might as well forget it.

The reason is simple. Kidd, Lafitte, Teach and the less notorious pirates thought too much of themselves to bury their wealth.

"By far the greatest number of them did not die on the gibbet," he said. "They vomited from the business after they'd made their pile and went to various other parts of the world, where they lived out their lives in ease."

Nevertheless, reports of buried treasure persist. One reason, Dr. Beck thinks, is that even as now the world of buccaneer days had its practical jokers.

Pranksters Busy

"They'd drop maps with the familiar skull and crossbones in places where they would be found," he said, "and then sit back to enjoy the uproar."

One such hoax led to the first large scale treasure hunt Dr. Beck has been able to trace. It occurred at Cape May, N. Y., in 1701. When the hunters learned they had been fooled, they saw to it that the pranksters were jailed.

If any pirate gold is to be found hereabouts, Absecon island would be a likely spot, Beck concedes. Unfortunately, the island is now occupied by Atlantic City and the best beach front sites for digging are under ton upon ton of resort hotels.

The Absecon islanders of the early 18th century were themselves practicing—if land based—pirates. Pirating was their industry. Their only equipment was a donkey and a lantern. On stormy nights ships beating their way along the coast would be misled by a lantern tied to a donkey's tail. The donkey would be prodded along the beach in the direction of Brigantine shoals and the ship's master, having no other bearing, would be lured by the light on the shoals.

New Medical Series Tests To Be Given at One Time

NEW YORK.—A shotgun hunt to find and halt diseases the average person is unaware he has seems like the next major step in health preservation.

The shotgun hunt will be a quick series of tests at one time to check for tuberculosis, diabetes, anemia, some kinds of cancer, and heart diseases. It will take from 15 to 30 minutes.

At present such hunts are made separately, like firing single bullets. These hunts find thousands of people who have the disease which is being sought. These are sent to their physicians for early treatment that they may save lives.

Tying the tests together, in a shotgun approach, was described to the American Public Health association by Dr. Lester Broslow, chief of the chronic disease service, California state department of public health.

Even a simple battery of tests could probably spot 20 to 25 people with an unsuspected, significant disease out of each 1,000 examined, he said.

The first trial with multiple tests was made in San Jose, Calif., on 945 workers in four industries. Each got a chest X-ray, blood test and urinalysis. It took 15 minutes for each worker.

Thirteen were found to have unsuspected tuberculosis, diabetes, or diseases of the heart, blood vessels, or kidneys. Another 16 were found to have diseases that had been diagnosed before. However, some of these persons had stopped getting treatments.

Cavemen

Foil Black Market

NEMI, ITALY.—Sixteen Italian families are living like cave-men in the once resplendent castle of an American princess. They occupied the castle in the hectic days of the German withdrawal five years ago. Since then they have resisted all efforts of Princess Eugenia Ruspoli to move them out.

The princess, an American who acquired the title by marrying an Italian nobleman, said she was claiming more than a million dollars from the Italian government for damages done to the castle.

"The government won't do anything about giving it back," she said. She said she had tried to do some limited repair work, but the "extreme difficulties" she met made it impossible. She was pressing her claim for damage through the American embassy.

The 85-room castle, once owned by the powerful Colonna family, is indeed in shambles, the princess reported. She said there are now no lights, water or heating facilities and that the walls are cracking and have been chipped away.

Voodoo 'Dying Out' In Old New Orleans Despite Cut Prices

NEW ORLEANS.—Voodoo isn't dead yet, but it's a dying business in this historic old city which has seen so much of it.

It slinks in the dark corners of the city and there are many who still quail at its powers. It has supporters, too, who claim that it was a voodoo curse which rid the world of Hitler and Mussolini.

The story goes back to 1941.

It was a hot, sticky night. A voodoo hot shot and nine black-robed assistants filed into a graveyard. They buried pictures of the two dictators. As the yellow moon rose, tall black candles were lit on the graves. The leader raised his arms to the moon. His aides tossed nervous cats into the candle flames and amid the resultant screaming the curse was pronounced—death to Hitler by a bullet, to Mussolini by hanging.

Even so, voodoo's grip has withered despite such modern touches as cut prices, free samples and even drugstore samples.

This toothless old terror is on its last shaky legs, a far cry from the day when the merest whisper of its presence could paralyze with fear.

The latest flurry to reach local headlines involved a young white war widow. She found a black voodoo cross on her doorstep. It symbolized death or separation from friends. The wax cross had the young widow's name on it and deeply thrust pins. At the top was a piece of string, knotted nine times. The maker of the cross was never traced, but police said it was voodoo professional work.

Police thought it was an attempt to extort money. Older residents in the neighborhood, wise to voodoo ways, said it was an attempt to turn the young, attractive woman against a boy friend.

There was a time when black voodoo queens ruled a realm of their own in this city of shoulder-wide streets and fancy grillwork balconies. But the lusty days of Melane and Marie Leveau, king and queen of voodooism before the Civil war, have faded into history.

U.S. Air Force Has Plane Much Faster Than Sound

NEW YORK.—The U.S. air force has disclosed that man has flown and lived at speeds hundreds of miles an hour faster than the speed of sound, which is 760 miles an hour at sea level.

The air force also has admitted possession of a supersonic plane, the X-1, but it has declined to give its exact top speed.

Whether it was meant that the plane referred to was the ultra-fast plane, or some other, was not disclosed by officials.

However, an air force top figure declared that this plane, if it had the range, could arrive in San Francisco before it left New York. He added that would give worry to the time-table experts.

The X-1 is understood to have reached a speed of close to 1,000 miles an hour for a matter of seconds. Presumably the speaker meant that if a plane had the power to sustain such speed for long distances, it could fly coast-to-coast in less than the three-hour time difference.

Island of Elba Becoming Popular Tourist Resort

ISLAND OF ELBA.—This diminutive island which still bears the stamp of Napoleon's influence, is rapidly becoming a tourist resort.

Elba has only modest accommodations for visitors. A tourist can get by on $2 or $3 a day for room and board in clean and tastefully appointed hotels. Good wines and cuisine are available.

The sea is deep blue, enclosed in a rocky little bay. There are sandy beaches with clean white sand. Then there are the chestnut forests on the mountains.

During his exile on Elba, Napoleon built a network of roads to link various small towns. These roads are still good enough for cars.

SHORT STORY

Almost A Mistake

By Richard Hill Wilkinson

AARON JORDAN had a swell job writing advertising for a Chicago agency. The night he came home and told Sally, his wife, that he was going to quit because he wanted to write movie scenarios, she thought he'd been drinking.

"Either that," she said, "or you're crazy." "Correct," said Aaron. "Just crazy enough to be able to write good scenarios. You've got to be crazy to get by in Hollywood. Joe Neal told me."

"Are we going to live in Hollywood?" Sally asked. "Naturally. That's where movies are made."

Sally was young and never had liked the idea of settling down too early in life. Besides, the idea of living in Hollywood was thrilling.

They had a little money saved up, which was lucky, because after living three months in the cinema city they hadn't made a dime. Aaron had written four scripts, which had almost sold. Almost. That one word had become the bane of their existence. It was the one word in Hollywood that drove people crazier than they were at the start.

Two months passed and the Jordans had almost made a pile of money. The money that they had saved was almost gone. They began to wonder about the future a little.

Another fortnight passed and Aaron and Sally decided they couldn't evade facts any longer. Almost selling something didn't buy bread. Aaron's latest story, now in the hands of Pacific coast studios, would, they felt, be returned like all the others. Almost good enough would be the comment. They held a council of war. As soon as Pacific Coast returned the story they'd have to quit and go home.

It gave them a sinking, frustrated feeling.

The day after the council of war, Aaron cut his finger while examining a typewriter ribbon in a nearby stationery store. The store manager gave first aid, made a report, took down his name and address and told him an adjuster would be up the next day.

When Aaron got home he told Sally about it. "It's a chain store. They're insured against accidents. I'll collect at least $100."

"But your finger isn't seriously cut."

"So what? Insurance companies have plenty of dough."

The adjuster came early the next morning. They knew him to be an insurance man by the benign, ingratiating look on his face.

"Cut your finger?" he asked.

"And pretty badly, too," Aaron replied. He glanced at Sally. She was eyeing him severely. He knew

"But your finger isn't seriously cut."

she didn't approve of what he planned to do.

"How'd it happen?" Aaron gave a detailed account of the accident.

"Too bad. Bother you about working?"

AARON HESITATED. This was the crucial moment. He could say the wound practically incapacitated him. He could make it strong, and perhaps collect $50.

Sally was regarding him steadily. He didn't like the look in her eyes. It made him feel small and cheap.

He shrugged. "No. I can work all right. It isn't anything serious. Let's forget it."

Their visitor looked relieved. "Good. I have a proposition to make. We didn't like your latest story especially."

"Eh?" said Aaron.

"Too farcial. But Jackson, he's our story man. Sent me up here to ask if you'd consider going to work for us. You see, we think you write pretty good dialogue. We need a dialogue writer."

Aaron gulped. "Then—you're not—I mean—"

"At what salary?" Sally asked practically.

"Well, I'm authorized to offer $250 to start."

"Why," Sally exclaimed, "that's almost $300."

"Almost!" yelled Aaron. "Don't mention that word again. We'll take the job. Wow! I'm almost crazy!"

"Me, too," Sally agreed.

"Sneezewood"
Ptaeroxylum, called "sneezewood" in South America, is a creamy white wood, very close grained, heavy, and could easily be taken for sugar maple. The dust tops all other woods in causing sneezing.

Fire College Lists Students Of Many Lands

NEW YORK.—There is no campus, no athletic teams, no college songs, but the fire college here has attracted students from all over the world.

The college was set up in 1912 by the New York city fire department. There are seven schools in the college of rookies, experienced firemen and officers.

There are thousands of fire buffs who would gladly pass up a three-alarm fire to attend one of the schools. But this courtesy, which may be extended to outsiders only by the fire commissioners, usually is extended only to fire chiefs of other countries and cities.

These fire chiefs, who come from every state in the nation, as well as England, Belgium, Brazil, Finland and the British West Indies, are put through officer's school. They go to class once a week for 14 weeks. At the same time they are assigned to a busy firehouse and roll with the company to get practical experience.

Recalls Norwegian Deputy Chief Edward Conway, of staff and operations, who is in charge of the college, recalls a visiting chief from Norway:

"He was a big, fine looking chap. He wanted to cram everything he could in his short stay. So he spent his days at the college and his nights with a midtown engine company."

"He walked into my office a week later, and I didn't recognize him. He looked like he hadn't slept for a month. He'd been busy rolling to one fire after another. The only thing he said to me was, 'I never heard so many alarm bells in my life.'"

Chief Conway then told of a South American fire chief's short semester:

"This fellow was really kept busy. He rolled to the Empire State building the day a plane crashed into it. Right after that he had two ship fires. This was in addition to the routine runs. He told me he rolled on fires he never knew existed."

Taught Newest Techniques Thirty to 40 newly appointed lieutenants attend a session of officers' school. They are taught every conceivable way of scientifically controlling a fire. Besides, they must become familiar with the intricate high pressure water mains under the street.

About once a year an entire fire company is ordered to the company school. Other firemen are assigned to its quarters for the day. Acting as a unit, the company is put through 24 basic evolutions in fire fighting. The members are timed and rated accordingly. Firemen receiving low ratings are recalled later for further review.

Pork Lovers Use Survey By College to Laud Swine

LINCOLN, NEB.—Results of North Carolina state college tests to prove their contention that the swine is the cleanest, smartest, most respectable animal on the farm, are being quoted hereabouts by pork lovers.

Compared to the chimpanzee, brightest of the ape family, the porker was a whiz at IQ tests, according to his supporters. He learned to match dogs in hunting, it was claimed, and only frustrated vanity and commonsense drove him to the hog wallow.

Pigs have no sweat glands, it was explained, and the only way for them to cool off is to plunge into the wallow. No other means of cleanliness is provided.

Snide references to a "hoggish appetite," or to the animal's habit of rooting in the soil draw instant defense from the pigs' friends. Can the hog help it if nature endowed him with one of the fastest growing bodies in the animal world? And it takes food to grow, they say.

As for rooting, the experts describe it as a good, clean habit and an economical way of getting essential minerals.

If Junior wants a pet, try a pig, according to these enthusiasts. They argue a porker makes a devoted pet, can be housebroken easily, and has one of the best constitutions for testing baby foods.

British Doctors Believe Worrying Makes One Fat

LONDON.—If you are prone to worry about things, you are likely to get fat.

That's the opinion of two British doctors. Writing it in the British medical journal, two members of St. Thomas hospital in London cited cases they said upset the popular notion that trouble keeps you thin.

Drs. H. J. Shorvon and John Richardson told of several women who gained weight rapidly after severe shocks or worry.

The doctors said they were treating these patients to "relieve their mental distress," and not to cut their weight. They added they could not explain the reaction, and suggested the subject needed further study.

G.I. PROTECTION

New Jacket Stops Bullet

WASHINGTON.—A jacket made of plastic and nylon and which will stop a revolver bullet at point blank range has been developed by the army quartermaster corps.

According to reports on the effectiveness of the jacket, a soldier wearing it would be knocked down by a bullet fired from 15 feet away, but the jacket most probably would save his life.

The army pointed out, however, that the jacket would not stop a bullet fired from a machine gun or rifle because a missile from these weapons travels at a much greater velocity than a pistol bullet.

A rifle fired at close range would kill whether or not the soldier hit was wearing one of the new jackets; but a soldier protected by such jacket would have a chance of being saved if hit by a rifle or machine gun bullet fired from an appreciable distance.

Thick But Light

Existence of the new jacket was disclosed at San Pedro, Calif., recently by Maj. Gen. W. H. Middle-swart of the quartermaster general's office, and greater detail concerning the garment has been obtained from the national military establishment.

The material in the jacket is nearly a quarter inch thick, and it weighs seven pounds. A thicker material would of course make the jacket more impenetrable, but that would make it impractical, since it would add too much weight.

The present jacket, which is not a finished product and is still undergoing development, is heavy enough, when it is considered that a field overcoat weighs only half a pound more.

Rather than bullets from small arms like rifles and machine guns, the new jacket is designed to stop fragments from large shells, bombs, mortars and grenades, and partly spent and ricocheted bullets. The material is tough and spreads the shock of impact over a considerable area of the body.

Artillery Deadly

The army ground forces recently brought out in a report on battle casualties that big artillery guns kill the most soldiers, although rifles and machine guns are the most deadly.

This report, which until recently was "classified" and not available for publication, showed that multiple wounds from fragments of shells from big guns appear to be the rule in battlefield deaths, and that to be killed by a shell you usually have to be close to the burst. The fragments lose their lethal velocity at a relatively short distance.

On the other hand, if you are close enough to be badly wounded by one fragment, you are likely to be struck by many of them. It is in such situations that our military men feel the new jackets will be useful in saving lives.

The work is being done by the research and development branch of the office of the quartermaster general, with certain private concerns co-operating.

New UN Building to Have Elaborate Air-Condition

NEW YORK.—One of the most elaborate air-conditioning systems ever conceived is to be installed in the new United Nations building here to let the representatives of the 59 member nations hand-pick their own climate.

The system is expected to be a good investment in international good will. The air conditioning in the present building has been something less than satisfactory. French and New Zealand delegates have been vocally critical of the system now in use.

But, say U.N. officials, all this will be ended in the new secretariat building going up on Manhattan. The structure is to have an air-conditioning system with 4,000 individual hand controls.

Virtually every occupant will be able, by twisting simple knobs, to select exactly the temperature and humidity he liked best in his homeland.

The building will be so constructed that occupants of adjoining offices can choose widely different "climates" without interfering with each other.

Boy's Hunt for Autographs Valuable to Oklahoma State

NORMAN, OKLA.—Because of a boy autograph collector, the University of Oklahoma's manuscript collection has been enriched by a treasured state historical document.

The 15-year-old autograph hound, Robert E. Jackson, was a page boy from Sallisaw, Indian territory, when Oklahoma's constitutional convention met in Guthrie in 1907. Jackson collected the signatures of the 112 delegates present. Now a colonel serving with the U.S. occupation forces in Tokyo, Jackson turned over his signature book to the governor.

Names in the book include those of four men who served as governor of Oklahoma, the state's first senator, a university president and other men prominent in Oklahoma history.

Downey Hospital In Need of Nurses

The Veterans Administration hospital at Downey is in need of nurses to staff the various hospital activities.

There are vacancies for nurses in Nursing Education and Neuropsychiatry.

The rapid improvement and expansion of medical care for veterans during the past two years or more has demanded corresponding development in the caliber of nursing practices and policies. The high quality of medical treatment and care afforded veterans today is due in large measure to the manner in which VA nurses have met this unprecedented demand. Perhaps the outstanding feature of Veterans Administration nursing is the recognition of the nurse as a professional member of the hospital team. VA nurses share with doctors and administrators the responsibility for providing patients with the best kind of medical care.

To be eligible for a position as a VA nurse, the applicant must be a citizen of the United States, must be graduated from high school and from a school of nursing approved by the Administrator of the VA, must have current registration as a graduate nurse in a State or Territory of the United States or in the District of Columbia, must meet the physical requirements of the Department of Medicine and Surgery, must have professional experience and education as required for the various grades, must be under 40 years of age, unless the applicant possesses outstanding professional or administrative qualifications, and must have a personal interview with the Chief of the Nursing Service before appointment.

VA nurses have full professional status. They are appointed directly to the Department of Medicine and Surgery by a Professional Standards Board composed of nurses who determine eligibility for appointment and appropriate grade in the Department of Medicine and Surgery, based on evaluation of experience and education.

Nurses are appointed to take care of veteran-patients and must be willing to take care of any type of patient. Whenever possible assignments are made in accordance with the nurse's stated preference. VA nurses, however, are expected at all times to serve where they are most needed.

Graduate nurses may be appointed to temporary positions, pending State registration, upon evidence that State board examination has been taken or applied for.

Interested applicants should write immediately to the Manager, Veterans Administration Hospital, Downey, Illinois for necessary application forms and for any additional information desired.

Pedersen Buys Registered Cow
Brattleboro, Vt.—Alfred Pedersen, Antioch, recently acquired a registered Holstein-Friesian cow from the herd of Adolph Ryser, Zion, Ill.

Change of ownership for this animal, Johanna Colantha Tritomia Beets, has been officially recorded by the Holstein-Friesian Association of America.

Organize Legion Ball Club

There will be a meeting at the American Legion home Tuesday evening for the purpose of organizing an American Legion baseball team for the coming season. Any one interested in playing is asked by the organizers to attend this meeting. Uniforms used by members last year are to be turned in at this time.
